

From Spain Directly to You

Unique Spanish Products

Antonio Romero Casado was born in 1990, in the city of San Pedro de Alcantara, Malaga, Spain. From a young age he decided to work in the family restaurant “El Labrador”, where he acquired his first experiences in the world of Iberian Ham.

At the age of 18 he chose to immigrate to London, England, where he devoted himself entirely to the Bello-ta Ham Market. It was in London where he started making his first exports of the product from Spain, but he always had in mind moving to Canada.

After 6 years, and with the necessary knowledge, he dedicated himself to the market of ham and Iberian products import into the city of Vancouver, Canada, where he currently resides. Today, in the market with his Iberian products, Antonio, Master Ham Carver, expands his client base offering a unique service in the market through his personalized events.

With the determination to broaden his service also to the food and hospitality market, he caters to local hotels by delivering his services as Master Ham Carver to select Vancouver establishments.
